Entertainment at Bon Air.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.).

BON AIR. VA., July 19.—Last night nearly a hundred people assembled in the pavilion to enjoy an entertainment gotten up entirely by the younger set for the benefit of the Hazen Memorial Library. A stage had been arranged and the young people presented, in a very pleasing manner, the play entitled "The Rescue of the Princess Winsome." The characters were: Prince Hero, Darnley Adamson; Knight Fenriess, Meredith Chambers; Princess Winsome, Miss Virginia Miller; Ogress, Miss Ranie Taicott; Witch, Miss Eliza Montgomery; First Fairy, Miss Frances Woodson.

The young "actors" were beautifully costuned, and each part was well rendered. Following the play a number of tableau scenes were presented, and all were very pleasing to the audience. Refreshments were then served, the cash receipts from which, added to the "gate money," made up a handsome sum for the library—more than enough to remove a small debt that was hanging over it.

Wife Can Search Pockets.

KANSAS CITY, July 19.—Judge Stover declared in the Circuit Court yesterday that he would never interfere with that ancient and honorable right of a wife to search her husband's pockets for loose change. William M. Harding asked a divorce from Ina M. Harding, one reason being because sho had a habit of "frisking" his pockets after he fell asleep.

When the evidence was all in Judge Slover said:

"I want it distinctly understood that I am not granting this divorce because the wife went into her husband's pockets. I shall do nothing to interfere with that ancient privilege of the lair sex. A wite has the right to do that, I grant the divorce for other reasons." Wife Can Search Pockets.

Every effort was made to allay the agitation, which it is stated is a part of the retallation of the Chinese against the exclusion laws of the United States. The State Department has been informed by the consuls that the proposed boycott was organized by the trade guilds in five ports—Shanghai Canton, Tien Tsin, hankow and New Chwang.

It is believed that the boycott will not be successful or do any particular injury to American goods, except in the cities of Canton and Shanghai, where the guilds are stronger than elsewhere.

Hot Weather Growth.

Hot Weather Growth.

Do whiskers grow faster in hot weather than in cold? The correct answer to this question is: "They do." Barbers say that there is an increase of about 2) per cent. In business during the extremely hot spells and that all this increase comes from the men who habitually shave every other day, instead of once a day. Although hot weather makes more business for the chin polishers, they do not particularly welcome it. Men are slways more irritable and harder to shave. This, coupled with the increased speed of execution, makes the whole business unsatisfactory for both the shaver and the shave.

Gentlemen.—For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of Consequence Blood Folson. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Nothing did me any good, in fact the treatment proved more harmful than boneficial. Thus I continued to suffer for four years. I mentioned my case to a friend, who told me that S. S. S. had certainly cured him. I at once commenced its use, and in six months could find no trace of the disease whatever. This was about two years ago, and there has been no signs of return.
